

All Saints

"Blessed are you when they insult you and persecute you and utter every kind of evil against you falsely because of me. Rejoice and be glad, for your reward will be great in heaven."

Matthew 5:11-12

"The souls of the just are in the hand of God, and no torment shall touch them. They seemed, in the view of the foolish, to be dead; and their passing away was thought an affliction and their going forth from us, utter destruction. But they are in peace."

Wisdom 3:1-3

† MAY THEY REST IN PEACE

Mrs. Clara Salerno-Colantuoni of our parish. She leaves a daughter, two sons, six grandchildren and a great-granddaughter.

Mrs. Susan Hyland-O'Brien of our parish. She leaves two sons, two daughters, one brother, five grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

PLEASE PRAY FOR THEM & THEIR FAMILIES

THE VIGIL OF THIS FEAST is popularly called

"Hallowe'en" or "Halloween." The solemnity is celebrated on November 1st. It was instituted to honor all the saints, known, unknown, and according to Pope Urban IV, to supply any deficiencies in the Faithfull's celebration of saints' feasts during the year. All Saints Day in the Western Churches, especially the Roman Catholics, Lutherans, and Anglicans is kept on November 1st. The Orthodox Churches observe it on the first Sunday after Pentecost.

THE BOOK OF THE DECEASED, during the month of November, will be displayed near the Altar reminding each of us of everyone who has gone before us in death. We pray for all these persons and we ask them to accompany us in our journey to God.

†ALL SOULS' DAY in the Roman Catholic Church is a day for commemoration of all the faithful departed, those baptized Christians who are believed to be in purgatory because they have died with the guilt of lesser sins on their souls. It is celebrated on November 2nd. Roman Catholic doctrine holds that the prayers of the faithful on earth will help cleanse these souls in order to fit them for the vision of God in heaven.

SPIRITUAL REFLECTION: In today's Gospel, Jesus describes the vocation of parents: "The greatest among you will be your servant." Children take our blood, genes, strength, name, patience and resources. A parent's servitude begins at the moment of conception. The Lord is present in each of our acts of selfless service.
